Deutsch-Südamerikanische Freunde The Deutsch-Südamerikanische Freunde (DSF) is a German football club from the locality of Bornhöved, in the administrative district of Bornheim, Saarland, Germany. The club was founded in 1954 and originally named VfB Bornhöved in German. That name has been used by other teams as well. Under the name of VfB Gauting, the team played as early as 1947 in the Oberliga Süd (South). The club played as early as the Oberliga Baden and Bezirksoberliga Saarbrücken in the regionally organized Bezirksoberliga Rheinland-Pfalz in 1945–47. In 1964 the club was renamed to SV Bornhöved. History The early history of the club is split between the five-year period when it was known as SV Bornhöved, and the period after that as VfB Gauting, around 1985. The team played in the tiers from Oberliga Süd to Bezirksoberliga Saarbrücken. From 1985 to 1990 the team played as the name implies in the Gauting district of the German capital. During this period, the club played season after season in the German amateur leagues as well as in the then German third division (Bundesliga). In 1988 they were taken out of the Bezirksoberliga Saarbrücken by the team SV Bußgeigen and became part of the Oberliga Süd as the district champion.
