The "HyperMotion" for FIFA 22 also represents a significant addition to the FIFA franchise. It adds a new dimension to the sport by adding a real-time motion capture of players in incredible detail. The technology is exclusively powered by Novint Falcon, the world's leading motion tracking system. All of the goalkeepers, central defenders, midfielders and forwards are tracked by Novint Falcon, to display incredible detail in nearly every action the players make in match. This adds a new dimension to the traditional tracking of players in the game. The real-time motion capture of players adds incredible detail to everything the player does in a match, from training to game. "With 'HyperMotion' technology, it's possible to capture the movements of some of the world's best players in every single match they play. It's important to demonstrate that the data the players share with FIFA is the data that's used for the game." - Cristiano Ronaldo "FIFA is one of the most popular games on the planet. Bringing 'HyperMotion' technology to the FIFA series is something the gaming industry has never seen before. We are confident that the addition of 'HyperMotion' will increase the gameplay and will really deliver on what we always aim to achieve; a more realistic and immersive football game." - Sébastien Hubail, Managing Director, EA SPORTS FIFA FIFA 22 also introduces some new features for all modes of FIFA 22. The first is FIFA Ultimate Team's brand new tactic builder. Every member of the coaching staff in FIFA Ultimate Team will now have their own "home" on the tactic builder so they can create formations for their teams. New tactics can be saved and shared with friends. Football Manager this season also introduces some new features, including a new drafting interface, custom Draft Play and the ability to draft in the editor. There are also the return of the traditional game balance updates. More features are coming over the next few weeks and more details can be found in the EA SPORTS FIFA video. FIFA Ultimate Team - "Home" on Tactics Builder FIFA 22 introduces a new way to build tactical strategies for your teams with the "Tactics Home". We've given the staff at Football Manager a home on the FIFA Ultimate Team Tactics Builder
